Jeepers may trail peepers

By MICHAEL DANIELS

The Jeepers may be back, treading lightly as always, but this time hard on the heels of the leaf peepers.

Organizers of the Maine Mountains Jeep Jamboree say they are considering an autumn version of the popular springtime 4-WD festival.

Mark Smith, coordinator for Jeep Jamboree U.S.A., said the Bethel version has become so popular that the national organization would like to make it a twice-a-year affair.

If the details can be worked out, fall jamborees could begin as early as next year, Smith said.

An autumn jamboree would not be a fall foliage affair. The jamboree would be scheduled for a week or two after the peak of leaf season. Smith said in keeping with Jeep Jamboree's practice of holding their events when business in the host towns is likely to be slow.

A fall jamboree could be good news for the local economy.

Dick Knox, owner of the Bethel Inn, which serves as jamboree headquarters, estimates that this

Bethel Station

Petition opposes state taking

By MICHAEL DANIELS

A petition is now on the street urging the state not to use its power of eminent domain to take land for the Bethel Station Parkway.

The project's developers had initially planned to purchase the land privately and then convey it to the Maine Department of Transportation. But last month developer Heinie Merrill asked MDOT to step in, claiming that he was at a stalemate in his negotiations with the landowners involved.

MDOT has not decided whether to make such a move, but a public hearing has tentatively been set for June 12, according to Bethel Town Manager Madeleine Henley.

It is unclear who drafted the petition opposing eminent domain, or what impact it will have on MDOT's decision.

Bob Lowell, co-owner of Western Maine Supply (which owns one of the parcels of land) declined to comment on the petition; and K. Alexander Visbaras, a Lewiston attorney who has represented Lowell and Danny Davis, said he had not seen the petition.

Ruth Grover, who owns one of the businesses where the petition is available, said she did not know who had drafted it.

The petition is also available at the Red Top, but cashier Grace Gibson was likewise in the dark about who might have drafted it -- and she herself was disinclined to sign it. "I'm tired of these things," she said. "Those people (the landowners) were offered good money."

Sunday River closes

Record season reported despite poor weather; now onward to Oz

By ALISON ALOISIO

It wasn't a great year, but it was a good year.

Sunday River Ski Resort closed for skiing on Sunday. While overall skier visits were up from last year, spring skiing was off, according to spokesman Skip King.

"Due to the flatness of the energy of the market across New England, the spring skiing business was softer than we'd like to see it," King said Tuesday.

Still, the area's snowmaking capacity helped it weather the lack of snowfall better than many New England resorts. King said total skier visits were 546,000 this season, compared to last year's 528,000.

"Only three areas in New England were up -- Sunday River, Attitash, and Okemo in Vermont. They were the ones that made it through the January thaw in the best shape.

"If there was ever a winter that showed how important snowmaking is, relative to the impact on the community's economy, this was it," said King.

He said that while Sunday River's day-skier market was softer, there had been growth in group and midweek visits.

King said New England skiing was off 16.5 percent across the board.

Not surprisingly, the Newry resort plans further expansion this summer.

King said an eighth peak will be

Telstar baseball

State crown's the goal

By ALISON ALOISIO

A sound defense and solid pitching should give Telstar High School a good chance to win the Mountain Valley Conference baseball title this year.

"And the state championship isn't an impossibility," coach Bob Remington said.

On defense, Telstar has played two error-free games so far this year. Remington said anytime a high school team can stay under three errors a game, they're doing well.

A pitching staff that includes Tim Remington, Adam Newell, Clint Myers, and Tim Hebert give the team depth on the mound as well.

Remington said that while Tim Remington is probably the best pitcher in the league, the others are talented, too. He said many high school teams have only one strong pitcher.

"Tim and Adam could pitch for a Division III college team now," Remington said.

Softball

Shooting for playoffs

By ALISON ALOISIO

Tight games have been the trademark of the Telstar softball team so far this year. The results have been mixed.

"We're 4-3, but we could just as easily be 6-1," coach Jim Lunney said last week.

The team has won one, and lost two, one-run games.

Lunney is optimistic the team can make the playoffs. Last year they failed to do that for the first time in 12 seasons.

Telstar is strong on experience, with all of last year's starters returning.

Seniors include Angie Lovejoy (pitcher), Laura Seames (first base), Shye Buck (second), Lori Davis (center field), and Amy Patten (left field).

"The biggest difference from last year is Angie's improved pitching. Her control and stamina are better. She's pitched an eight- and 10-inning game, and done well in all her games," Lunney said.

Davis has made some good running catches in center field, to anchor an overall strong defense.

Boys' coach sees a team

By ALISON ALOISIO

Telstar track coaches usually tell their squads to aim for individual achievement in their meets.

That's because small numbers have generally prevented the teams from being competitive. But this year, boys' track coach Russ Tomrose sees a team.

"We're doing all right team-wise. We're more competitive," he said.

Senior Todd Wing has a lot to do with that.

"He's first in the high jump at every meet," said Tomrose.

Last week Wing broke the Telstar school record by three inches, competing against Livermore Falls and Carrabec.

He also won the triple and long jumps, as Telstar finished second in the meet.

Another senior, distance runner Joel Riley, is a top competitor in the 800-1,600-, and 3,200-meter races.

Tomrose expects Wing, and possibly Riley, to do well in regional com-

Vet says owner should be top dog

OH, I HATE IT WHEN HE LOOKS AT ME LIKE THAT Dr. Gary Stuer demonstrates a dominance training technique with his own dog, Oreo. The dog doesn't make eye contact with Stuer, a sign that he recognizes the veterinarian as the boss. (Oreo obviously didn't feel that way about the photographer.)

Bringing up puppy isn't what it used to be.

At least not for the clients of veterinarian Dr. Gary Stuer of the Bethel Animal Hospital. When new puppy owners come in for their first visit, Stuer teaches them how to communicate with the pup in dog language -- through dominance-training exercises.

"The purpose is to teach the puppy that you're the boss, so everyone in the family can control the animal," Stuer said.

That means challenging the puppy -- and getting him to back down.

Stuer teaches dog owners five exercises, two of which require looking the puppy in the eyes. Making eye contact is taken as a threat, or challenge, by a dog.

In one case, the owner holds the puppy's front paws off the ground and stares at him until the dog looks away. Breaking eye contact signals the dog's submission to the human.

In another exercise, the puppy is laid on his back, with the human straddling him and staring, again until the dog looks away.

Other exercises involve leaning over the puppy's shoulders, also taken as a challenge in the canine world.

Stuer encourages all members of the puppy's family to do the exercises regularly for several weeks.

> 'It's difficult, and it can be dangerous, to use the technique on an older dog. People can get bitten.'
> Gary Stuer
> Veterinarian

"You can't have the dog thinking he's dominant over anyone in the family," he said.

Stuer stresses the exercises are not intended to hurt the dog.

Teaching the technique is uncommon among veterinarians. Stuer and a former colleague in Massachusetts decided to adapt it from trainers' practices.

"Often, the vet intervenes when it's too late, when the behavior problems have already developed," Stuer said.

There is truth, then, to the saying that you can't teach an old dog new tricks, at least when dominance is involved.

"It's difficult, and it can be dangerous, to use the technique on an older dog. People can get bitten," said Stuer.

The dogs aside, how do the humans respond to the idea of dominance training?

"Most people are happy to have me talk about it. Only about 5 to 10 percent aren't interested -- and those are the ones who usually have problems," Stuer said.

He said some people worry the training will turn their dogs into "wimps," but that's not the case.

"They'll still bark at strangers, but the family will be able to control them," he said.

Stuer cautions dog owners to get instruction from him, or a good dog training book, before trying the exercises.

Socialization important

Besides dominance training, Stuer also emphasizes the need for socializing new puppies.

"They need to get used to new people, dogs, and new situations in general," he said.

Stuer said socialization can be difficult in areas like rural Maine, where dogs and their families are more isolated.

He said in some areas "puppy classes" are common. They give puppies the chance to get together with each other, and meet other humans, too.

A puppy play group?

"That's about it," said Stuer.

DON'T SACRIFICE GUIDANCE

To the Editor:

Difficult decisions are being made by our Board of Directors concerning the future of our schools. Budget constraints have resulted in the Board's considering the elimination of one of the two guidance counselors at Telstar Regional High School.

Our high school has the reputation throughout the state of having an excellent guidance department. It as a well-earned reputation. Through the efforts of the Guidance Department, students are involved in a number of activities and learning experiences that many high school students do not have the opportunity to experience. Students are trained to present awareness programs, such as the freshman orientation program, organized and implemented by F.A.C.T. There are many other programs during which students learn about problems, practice presenting information about these problems, and gain invaluable experience interacting with other students and adults. It is this kind of real life learning that makes Telstar's guidance program excellent.

For a number of years, the guidance program has included something called "Self Groups." These groups provide the chance for students to learn decision-making skills, to learn how to express their feelings appropriately, to learn and practice communication skills and to acquire conflict resolution skills. These groups have made it possible to deliver guidance services to a much larger number of students than is possible on a one-to-one basis. Our high school has a minimum number of students dropping out, truant behaviors. Schools where similar programs do not exist are experiencing much more difficulty with discipline.

The Chemical Health Coordinator and other trained members of the staff have facilitated groups that focus on the same kinds of learning as well as the special problems faced by people who are using chemicals or who are affected by other people's use. At this point, the plans for next year's continuing a chemical health coordinator are unsettled.

If Telstar loses one of its counselors and has no chemical health coordinator, our students will have very little or no access to the kinds of opportunities previously mentioned. I know how difficult budget decisions are. I don't envy our directors on this process. However, I hope careful thought will be given to the impact upon our students that a reduction in guidance services would have. There is no way a single guidance counselor at the high school could maintain the present level of services.

We are faced every year with students who have more and more problems. I have taught for a long time, 24 years in SAD44. During that time, I have seen an ever increasing number of students with emotional and behavioral problems. I don't see that trend being reversed. Given today's financial crisis in rural areas, social agencies, community clinics, and private counselors are more readily available to students. It is often difficult, impossible for students to find adequate access to such services in our area.

The accompanying cartoon strip is a creation of Caitlin Kavanagh, a student at Telstar Regional High School. It is his visual concept of an abusive adult's face.

FATHER DIDN'T SEEK PRODIGAL

To the Editor:

When addressing a particular issue in a letter to the editor, my policy is to refrain from personal attacks on individuals. Rather, my comments are meant to reflect the attitudes and atmosphere prevalent in our country today. I also do not respond to comments made about me personally, since to do so usually presents the other person with a legitimacy that he or she does not deserve.

I would like to comment, however, on the Scripture that was used in Mr. Wittzius' letter of May 10:

Yes, I have read the "Prodigal Son" parable. And it teaches that the father neither hunted for nor sent for his son. It was not until the son repented of his way of life and returned to the father that he was welcomed with open arms. Love and compassion do not create healing. Healing begins only when we recognize our failure to do God's will and turn back to Him. Then, and only then will He embrace us as His children and heal our hurts.

May I suggest that before quoting the Bible, a person should at least have a passing knowledge of the theology it contains. Attempting to use the theology of love and compassion as an excuse for wrongdoing merely makes a mockery of God's Word. When Scripture is taken out of context, either through ignorance or duplicity, the truth is compromised.

Then it is time to do more than listen to Rev. Graham. It is time to pay attention to what he is saying.

TERRI-LYNN'S MEMORY

To the Editor:

On April 19, 1995 a tragic incident happened in Oklahoma City. On that day a lot of lives were taken, especially children's. That day will never be forgotten. That day will always be remembered for us also, for that day our beautiful daughter Terri-Lynn lost her battle with cancer.

During the past three years she has written to everyone (through the Bethel Citizen) telling everyone of how she felt concerning her disease, her operations, chemo, loss of her hair, her remission and also of her re-occurance. She was always grateful for all of the cards, letters and gifts and especially prayers that she received from everyone in Bethel. They always brought her spirits up during this tough time. She never gave up hope or the fight to keep going during this battle, because she said there was too much more to see and do.

We would like to thank everyone for all of the words of encouragement and prayers for our daughter and our family, these past three years. Also to thank everyone that sent flowers, cards, letters and especially the donations to the Susan Curtis Camp for disadvantaged children in Terri-Lynn's memory. She always loved children and thought of them as her own while they were in her care. Her memory will live on with this trust fund, so other children will know of her love also. The trust fund has been started and if anyone would like to contribute further they may do so by sending the money to the Susan L. Curtis Foundation, P.O. Box 821, Portland, Maine 04104. Please specify it is for the Terri-Lynn Perry Fund.

Terri-Lynn had a very short life, but during this short time she touched a great many hearts, maybe more than some people do in a lifetime. A very good friend of ours said that God was so overwhelmed by all these babies arriving from Oklahoma City that he needed someone to take special care of these children. So he called on Terri-Lynn to help him out. That day and all of those people and the children, and especially our daughter Terri-Lynn will never be forgotten.

missioner, said that because the Bethel Station situation is unique, he was not sure what impact the petition would have on MDOT's eventual decision.

"What the petition does in my mind," he said, "is validate the decision to hold a public hearing. We will hold the hearing, see what comes up, and then make a decision."

The petition reads as follows:

"We the undersigned, have signed this petition to voice our strong objections to all decisions of the Maine Department of Transportation which would result in the taking by the power of eminent domain or condemnation of any real property located in the Town of Bethel, Oxford County, Maine for the construction of what has been commonly referred to as 'Bethel Station Parkway' by various developers of the Bethel Station Project, including Victoria Associates, Inc., Bethel Station Limited Partnership, Grant Wilson, Les Otten, Hemie Merrill. Our objections include, but are not limited to, the use of State and/or Federal tax revenues available through the Maine Department of Transportation as a substitute and replacement for private funds previously represented by the Bethel Station Project developers as dedicated for the construction of the 'Bethel Station Parkway,' and the undertaking of the 'Parkway' construction by the Maine Department of Transportation, an agency of the State of Maine, as a private developer, exceeding its authority under Title 23 of the Maine Revised Statutes Annotated."

Jeepers

weekend's affair brought $50,000 to $60,000 into the local economy.

Two hundred and seventy-five people, in about half that many jeeps, showed up Friday and Saturday.

This year's enthusiasts rode seven different trails, over 42 miles in length -- testing their driving skills in off-road conditions ranging from most difficult to gentler mountain trails stretching from Sunday River to South Paris with Bethel at the hub of the Western Mountain trail network.

Bethel is one of more than a dozen sites for the Jamboree. Others include the Rubicon Trail in northern California, Arch Canyon, Utah; the Black Hills of South Dakota; and the Appalachian Trail in North Carolina.

Geoff Gaudreau is Bethel coordinator, on behalf of the Western Maine Mountain Jeepers, which also provides the trail guides for the event. This year, his organization has worked with 21 different private landowners to set up the trail network.

"We are most appreciative of the support of local business people and private land owners like Bob Chadbourne, Dick Penley and Les Otten, who see the recreational and economic value of this event to the area," Gaudreau said.

"This is an event that not only involves our club, but almost the whole town of Bethel in one way or another."

While the Bethel Inn is the headquarters, the Jeepers have filled several other local lodging establishments, Gaudreau said, and they spent money at convenience stores, gas stations and other businesses in town. In addition, Bethel BEARS provided the box lunches for the trail rides to raise funds for their organization, and the Bethel Fire Department's jeep wash raised hundreds of dollars towards the purchase of a new jaws-of-life.

TO BE BURNED?–This unlived-in farmhouse at the top of Howe Hill Road in Greenwood is being considered for the site of a training fire for local mutual aid fire departments. The 18th century homestead, with its fine view toward Bethel and the Mahoosuc Mountains, was once home to the Cross, later Seames, families. It was then owned for many years by the family of Gen. James D. Alger. Raymond W. Seames, Greenwood's fire chief, said that for the past 40 years the building has been used only sporadically; it has also been vandalized and structurally is badly deteriorated. The training fire would provide local mutual aid departments with a rare opportunity to practice battling a major structure fire under controlled conditions, he said. A decision on whether to go ahead with the exercise is expected shortly, Seames said, but a final go-ahead will depend on weather conditions on the day of the proposed burn.

THIS WEEK AT THE

Moses Mason House

The Bethel Historical Society's Garden and Grounds Committee met recently and made plans for the 1995 gardening season at the Dr. Moses Mason House.

Two new members were added to the committee: Lucia Schwarz and Shireen Vincent. Margaret Joy Tibbetts announced that she was retiring as the head of the committee and Geraldine Howe was selected to chair the committee. Anyone interested in joining the committee is urged to call the Society office at 824-2908. Volunteers are always needed and those wishing to donate surplus plants (particularly old-time perennials) are urged to do so.

The Society's Preservation Committee also met recently and made the recommendation for the 1995 Bethel Historical Society Preservation Award to the Board of Trustees. Kathy Hooke was added to the committee and Ken Bohr was selected to chair the committee, replacing Sally Taylor, who declined to accept the chair for another year. Several projects for the committee's consideration were discussed and a future meeting was planned for later in the month to review proposals.

Two reminders: The fashion show on Saturday, May 20 at the Gehring/NTL house to benefit the Bethel Bicentennial Committee and the 16th Annual Faye Taylor Memorial Art Show will be held on May 27 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Dr. Moses Mason House.

LOOKING BACK

10 years ago: The former Redwood Motel, owned by Paul Carter (constructed and operated by owner Roland Glines), located on Route 2 in Mayville near Paul Carter's garage, was purchased by Edward and Joyce Bassett, owners of Pleasant River Campground in West Bethel, and moved to a location east of the campground (now a part of Pleasant River Motel owned by Francis and Barbara Dumont). Virginia Keniston, retired Bethel librarian, was honored at a reception given at the Bethel Library. Three Bethel students, James Feeney, Sarah Putnam and Katy Holden were among the top 10 honor students at Gould Academy. Raymond and Janis Harrington were presented the first Community Service Award by the Bethel Rotary Club for their promotion of scouting in the area. Deaths: Terry Lee Gordon, Francis "Red" Noyes.

20 years ago: The Great A & P Tea Company store (now the home of the Bethel Area Health Center) closed its doors after 50 years of operation in Bethel; the first store was located on Main Street and moved to the newly constructed facility on Railroad Street in 1968. Mundt-Allen Post was believed to have a "first" when Mrs. Carolyn Brooks took over as the Post commander. Girls' Staters from Telstar Regional High School were: Candy Bennett, delegate, and Marjorie Berry, alternate (Mundt-Allen Post) and Donna Brooks, delegate (Bethel Chamber of Commerce). Death: Susie Lovejoy Virge.

30 years ago: Susan Vogt was selected as "Miss Poppy 1965" by the Mundt-Allen American Legion Auxiliary. "A Visit to the Museum," title of the Crescent Park School Concert directed by Mrs. Edith Eypper, received a tremendous applause for its unique combination of art and music. Discussion of possible sites for the new district school (now SAD44's Telstar Regional High School) included the Spinney property near Chadbourne Lumber Company, Brooks' property opposite the residence of Dr. James Hudson (now Dr. Stuer's), the Luxton property (owned by Mrs. Ruth Cummings) across from the Western Auto Store (now the Alliance Church) (this lot was later chosen for the new school), and the site of the former Grafton Lumber Company mill across from Edwin and Musa Brown's home on Route 26. Timothy Ramage won third honors at Bridgton Academy. Deaths: Ray Taylor, Florence Brown, Bethany Freeman.

40 years ago: The week of May 16 was designated by the Post Office Department as Rural Mail Box Improvement Week. The annual smorgasbord, sponsored by the Bethel Auxiliary of Rumford Community Hospital at Gould Academy's William Bingham Gymnasium, overflowed with couples from Bethel, Waterford, Dixfield and Rumford. The National Training Laboratory in Group Development returned to Gould Academy for its ninth summer. Birth: Alicia LePage. Deaths: Hazel Cash, Etta Peterkin.

50 years ago: Staff Sgt. Paul Stearns was killed in action in Italy. Cpl. Robert Greenleaf, in a letter to his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Sherman Greenleaf, described Nazi barbarism and squalid living conditions in the area of Germany where he was stationed. A blanket of from one to three feet of heavy, wet snow covered the Bethel area. Marriage: Kathleen Wight and John Stone.

Briefly

Selectmen lack quorum

ANDOVER--The Andover Board of Selectmen failed to have a quorum at a regular meeting last week, as only selectman Joseph Madigan showed up. Robert Greeke has resigned, and chairman Harold Frazier was out of town. Frazier had threatened to resign two weeks ago, citing differences with Madigan. Greeke resigned in support of Frazier. Since then, Frazier has said he would not leave the town with only one selectman.

VFW cleans up

BETHEL--The Bethel Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 11363 completed a roadside cleanup of Routes 2 and 26 last week. The project is part of an Adopt-a-Road program started by the Bethel post in 1994. According to past commander Larry Smith, this year's project totaled about one and a half tons of trash -- about half a ton less than last year. He said that once again one of the biggest items found along the roadways was tires. "Last year we picked up 14 tires, and this year 15," Smith said, "so it looks like people don't want to pay for depositing them at their local transfer station. We like to help, but hope people will become more conscious of their responsibilities as well."

Bird Hill subdivision tabled

BETHEL--The Planning Board tabled a subdivision plan submitted by Tom DuBois of the Highland Land Corp. on behalf of Dr. David Merrill of Scarborough. The subdivision would be known as The Meadow at Bird Hill. Fire chief Jim Young wrote a letter to the board, expressing concern that a private road leading to the subdivision is too narrow to allow emergency vehicles to pass each other in case of fire. DuBois agreed to propose turnouts to Ronald Savage, who owns part of the property on which the road is located. Chairman Frank Vogt told Dubois the subdivision would probably be approved if the road issue was resolved.

Newry Clean-up Day details

NEWRY--Selectman announced details Tuesday for the June 3-4 Newry Clean-up Day. There will be two bins located in parking lot 5 at Sunday River Ski Resort. One is for tires only, the other for demolition debris and furniture. A separate area will be set aside for appliances and metal. No household trash or brush is permitted. In other business at the selectmen's meeting, the Newry Cemetery Association is interested in returning the cemetery to town control. Selectman Wendy Hanscom said it is the understanding of selectmen that the association lacks the funds to continue maintaining the cemetery.

Man drowns in McWain Pond

WATERFORD--A former Norway man drowned in a paddle boat accident on McWain Pond last week. Scott Whittemore, 24, of Portland, had been fishing with two companions. The rod in the pedal mechanism on the four-person paddleboat apparently snapped, causing water to come into the craft. When the boat began taking on water, the three men swam toward shore. Robert Allen, 24, and Andrew Washer, 26, made it, but Whittemore did not. His body was recovered on Friday. There were no floatation devices on the boat.

Police officers to be honored

AUGUSTA--Four names will be added to the Maine Law Enforcement Officer's Memorial in Augusta this month. Police officers will gather May 18 for an annual observance. Among the names to be added is that of State Trooper Jeffrey Parola, who died last November when his car overturned. Others include Kennebec County Deputy Sheriff Sgt. Thomas Malloy, shot to death Oct. 9, 1884; Aroostook County Deputy Sheriff Harold Hillman, beaten to death Dec. 21, 1914; and Maine Game Warden Lee Parker, shot to death Sept. 1, 1927. The four new names bring to 72 the number of law enforcement officers who are known to have died in the line of duty in Maine.

Magalloway River development?

LINCOLN PLANTATION--A public hearing is scheduled for June 13 regarding a possible 17-lot residential subdivision on the Magalloway River. Cole-Haan footwear magnate George Denny of Freeport bought the 100-acre property in 1990. The river and nearby Umbagog Lake are favorite spots for fishermen and canoeists seeking undisturbed wilderness. Some local residents are worried about the possible impact of the subdivision. In a February letter to the Dennys, selectmen predicted such a large development might result in a bigger tax bill for the small community, in order to provide municipal services. The hearing is being held by the Land Use Regulation Commission.

More post office closings possible

RUMFORD--The U.S. Postal Service is considering closing the Rumford Center and Rumford Point post offices. About 114 area residents have signed petitions protesting the possible closure. Postal Change Coordinator Carol Niles said the closings are being investigated because there are postal employee vacancies in both offices. Customer surveys asking about residents' mailing habits have been circulated, and an informational meeting will be held next Tuesday at 10 a.m. at the Rumford Center Community Hall.

added to the Jordan Bowl area. A 3,000-foot chairlift, and a minimum of six new trails, are in the works. The new area will be known as "Oz."

King said the new trails will include more glades ski terrain, as well as islands of trees interspersed with open areas. The new design is a departure from the traditional clearcut trails.

Sunday River also plans to boost the snowmaking system, both to accommodate the new area and improve the overall efficiency of the snowmaking operation.

"It will make the system 34 percent bigger than the next largest snowmaking system in New England," King said.

The skiway also plans improvements to the parking area near the South Ridge Lodge, intended to make the traffic flow smoother, according to King.

"We've got a pretty big project here this summer," he said.

The area's mountain bike park opens May 27, for weekends only. The park will go on a seven-day schedule July 1.

King said several trails will be added to the bike trail network this season.

FROM THE

Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce

Saturday, May 20, Summit Hotel, Sunday River Ski Resort, the Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce will be recognizing board members at their 26th Annual Awards Banquet in addition to several other citizenship and business awards.

Barbara D. Brown will be recognized as "Volunteer of the Year." She has been active in the Chamber of Commerce since the 1960s and was one of the original organizers of the Chamber's Annual Awards Ceremony, with the first one being held in 1969. Barbara was chairperson of publicity for the chamber for many years and then was treasurer. Most recently, Barbara chaired the Nominating Committee, was secretary and has helped with many special projects. Barbara has recently retired from her position on the board of directors after 26-plus years of involvement. She truly deserves our heartfelt thanks and recognition for her years of service.

We will also honor George Larson, who retired from his position on the board at the end of 1994. George was elected to the chamber board soon after his arrival in Bethel. During his term he was president-elect, president, past president, and treasurer. George has been a great asset to the chamber especially in the accounting area. We thank him for his time and expertise.

Finally, the chamber will be recognizing its outgoing president, Linda Varrell. Linda has done a phenomenal job with the chamber during a time of transition. Her high ethics and professionalism have been an inspiration to many. She has served as board member, president-elect and president during her term taking on several committee chairmanships as well. She will continue on the chamber board as past president. Many thanks to Linda for all her hours of service to the chamber.

The Chamber Awards will be held this Saturday, May 20, at the Summit Hotel. Reservations must be made by Wednesday at 5 p.m. by calling 824-2282, chamber office. The cost is $25 per person and includes a full buffet meal and hors doeuvres starting at 6 p.m. Special guests that evening will be the Bethel Community Band and speakers Chaitanya York and Henry Bascom. There will be a silent auction with many items featuring Maine destinations and products. Some of the items include: a season ticket to Ski Mt. Abram; a 1/2-day guided fishing trip on Kezar Lake with White Birch Guide Service; a Kennebec River White Water Raft Trip for two with Saco Bound/Downeast; an Old Orchard Beach Get-A-Way for two nights at the Edgewater on the Atlantic; a bag full of gift items, compliments of L.L. Bean in Freeport; a three-day mid-week golf school package including two nights lodging, all meals and golf lessons at the Bethel Inn and Country Club.

From the Bethel Police log:

Geek seeks eros or IBM

On May 14 at 7:55 p.m. a Bethel resident reported an unknown person was calling her and harassing her. The caller made an obscene proposal, then asked if she had a computer for sale. The complainant was advised to get the identity of callers in the future, if possible.

Thursday, May 11

At 10:15 p.m. a Sunday River condominium resident reported she had been assaulted and threatened by a Hanover resident at the Sud's Pub. The incident was stopped by the bartender, and all parties departed without further incident. The complainant was undecided about whether to press charges.

Friday, May 12

At 9:21 a.m. a Route 26 resident reported that a male operating a Chevy S-10 truck had been blowing the horn, while driving by her residence. She said he had also followed her when she left the Big Apple on Railroad Street. Police learned from the Oxford Police Department that the subject, of Oxford, has a paper route that takes him to New Hampshire. Oxford Police advised the subject the harassment will stop or charges will be filed.

Sunday, May 14

At 1:50 a.m. A Michigan resident reported that while his Ford pickup truck was parked behind the Bethel Fire Station, someone had removed all four wheel covers. A search of the area turned up nothing. Value of the wheel covers was $500.

At 2:11 a.m. a West Bethel resident reported that while he was away from his apartment, someone had forced his way into the residence and removed a number of items, total value $2,555. There were no signs of forced entry, although the complainant showed police the door could be opened by forcefully pulling the doorknob, even though the door was locked. Items taken included a TV, compact disk sterio, cordless phone, microwave, walkman cassette, and approximately 100 CD's. The complainant was advised it was important to locate the serial numbers for the items. The case is still under investigation.

This report highlights points of interest from the Bethel Police Department log, but does not include all reports of police activity.

DON'T SACRIFICE GUIDANCE

To the Editor:

Difficult decisions are being made by our Board of Directors concerning the future of our schools. Budget constraints have resulted in the Board's considering the elimination of one of the two guidance counselors at Telstar Regional High School.

Our high school has the reputation throughout the state of having an excellent guidance department. It is a well-earned reputation. Through the efforts of the Guidance Department, students are involved in a number of activities and learning experiences that many high school students do not have the opportunity to experience. Students are trained to present awareness programs, such as the freshman orientation program, organized and implemented by F.A.C.T. There are many other programs during which students learn about problems, practice presenting information about these problems, and gain invaluable experience interacting with other students and adults. It is this kind of real-life learning that makes Telstar's guidance program excellent.

For a number of years, the guidance program has included something called "Self-Groups." These groups provide the chance for students to learn decision-making skills, to learn how to express their feelings appropriately, to learn and practice communication skills, and to acquire conflict-resolution skills. These groups have made it possible to deliver guidance services to a much larger number of students than is possible in a one-to-one basis. Our high school has a maximum number of students who display difficult behaviors. Schools where similar programs do not exist are experiencing much more difficulty with discipline.

The Chemical Health Coordinator and other trained members of the staff have facilitated groups that focus on the same kinds of learning as well as the special problems faced by people who are using chemicals or who are affected by other people's use. At this point, the plans for next year to eliminate a chemical health coordinator are unclear.

If Telstar loses one of its counselors and has no chemical health coordinator, our students will have very little or no access to the kinds of opportunities previously mentioned. I know how difficult budget decisions are. I don't envy our directors in this process. However, I hope careful thought will be given to the impact upon our students that a reduction in guidance services would have. There is no way a single guidance counselor at the high school could maintain the present level of service.

We are faced every year with students who have more and more problems. I have taught for a long time, 24 years in SAD44. During that time, I have seen an ever-increasing number of students with emotional and behavioral problems. I don't see that trend being reversed any time soon. In fact, rural areas such as ours, communities without private counselors are more readily available to students. It is often difficult for parents to find the time to find adequate access to such out-of-school services in our area.

This accompanying cartoon strip is a creation of Carlos Kavanagh, a student at Telstar Regional High School. It is his visual concept of an ideal school theme.

FATHER DIDN'T SEEK PRODIGAL

To the Editor:

With all due respect to a particular letter to the editor, my policy is to refrain from personal attacks on individuals. Rather, my comments are meant to reflect the attitudes and atmosphere prevalent in our country today. Failure to respond to comments made about me personally, since to do so usually presents the other person with a legitimacy that he or she does not deserve.

I would like to comment, however, on the Scripture that was used in Mr. Williams' letter of May 10.

Yes, I have read the "Prodigal Son" parable. And it teaches that the father neither hunted for nor sent for his son. It was not until the son repented of his way of life and returned to the father that he was welcomed with open arms. Love and compassion do not create healing. Healing begins only when we recognize our failure to do God's will and turn back to Him. Then, and only then will He embrace us as His children and heal our hurts.

May I suggest that before quoting the Bible, a person should at least have a passing knowledge of the theology it contains. Attempting to use the theology of love and compassion as an excuse for wrongdoing merely makes a mockery of God's Word. When Scripture is taken out of context, either through ignorance or duplicity, the truth is compromised.

Then it is time to do more than listen to Rev. Graham. It is time to pay attention to what he is saying.

TERRI-LYNN'S MEMORY

To the Editor:

On April 19, 1995 a tragic incident happened in Oklahoma City. On that day a lot of lives were taken, especially children's. That day will never be forgotten. That day will always be remembered for us also, for that day our beautiful daughter Terri-Lynn lost her battle with cancer.

During the past three years she has written to everyone (through the Bethel Citizen) telling everyone of how she felt concerning her disease, her operations, chemo, loss of her hair, her remission and also of her re-occurance. She was always grateful for all of the cards, letters and gifts and especially prayers that she received from everyone in Bethel. They always brought her spirits up during this tough time. She never gave up hope or the fight to keep going during this battle, because she said there was too much more to see and do.

We would like to thank everyone for all of the words of encouragement and prayers for our daughter and our family, these past three years. Also to thank everyone that sent flowers, cards, letters and especially the donations to the Susan Curtis Camp for disadvantaged children in Terri-Lynn's memory. She always loved children and thought of them as her own while they were in her care. Her memory will live on with this trust fund, so other children will know of her love also. The trust fund has been started and if anyone would like to contribute further they may do so by sending the money to the Susan L. Curtis Foundation, P.O. Box 821, Portland, Maine 04104. Please specify it is for the Terri-Lynn Perry Fund.

Terri-Lynn had a very short life, but during this short time she touched a great many hearts, maybe more than some people do in a lifetime. A very good friend of ours said that God was so overwhelmed by all these babies arriving from Oklahoma City that he needed someone to take special care of these children. So he called on Terri-Lynn to help him out. That day and all of those people and the children, and especially our daughter Terri Lynn will never be forgotten.

missioner, said that because the Bethel Station situation is unique, he was not sure what impact the petition would have on MDOT's eventual decision.

"What the petition does in my mind," he said, "is validate the decision to hold a public hearing. We will hold the hearing, see what comes up, and then make a decision."

The petition reads as follows:

"We, the undersigned, have signed this petition to voice our serious objections to all decisions of the Maine Department of Transportation which would result in the taking by the power of eminent domain or condemnation of any real property located in the Town of Bethel, Oxford County, Maine for the construction of what has been commonly referred to as 'Bethel Station Parkway' by various developers of the Bethel Station Project, including Victoria Associates, Inc., Bethel Station Limited Partnership, Grant Wilson, Les Otten, Henne Merrill. Our objections include, but are not limited to, the use of State and/or Federal tax revenues available through the Maine Department of Transportation as a substitute and replacement for private funds previously represented by the Bethel Station Project developers as dedicated for the construction of the 'Bethel Station Parkway,' and the undertaking of the 'Parkway' construction by the Maine Department of Transportation, an agency of the State of Maine, as a private developer, exceeding its authority under Title 23 of the Maine Revised Statutes Annotated."

Jeepers

weekend's affair brought $50,000 to $60,000 into the local economy.

Two hundred and seventy-five people, in about half that many jeeps, showed up Friday and Saturday.

This year's enthusiasts rode seven different trails, over 42 miles in length -- testing their driving skills in off-road conditions ranging from most difficult to gentler mountain trails stretching from Sunday River to South Paris with Bethel at the hub of the Western Mountain trail network.

Bethel is one of more than a dozen sites for the Jamboree. Others include the Rubicon Trail in northern California; Arch Canyon, Utah; the Black Hills of South Dakota; and the Appalachian Trail in North Carolina.

Geoff Gaudreau is Bethel coordinator, on behalf of the Western Maine Mountain Jeepers, which also provides the trail guides for the event. This year, his organization has worked with 21 different private landowners to set up the trail network.

"We are most appreciative of the support of local business people and private land owners like Bob Chadbourne, Dick Penley and Les Otten, who see the recreational and economic value of this event to the area," Gaudreau said.

"This is an event that not only involves our club, but almost the whole town of Bethel in one way or another."

While the Bethel Inn is the headquarters, the Jeepers have filled several other local lodging establishments, Gaudreau said, and they spent money at convenience stores, gas stations and other businesses in town. In addition, Bethel BEARS provided the box lunches for the trail rides to raise funds for their organization, and the Bethel Fire Department's jeep wash raised hundreds of dollars towards the purchase of a new jaws-of-life.

TO BE BURNED?--This unlived-in farmhouse at the top of Howe Hill Road in Greenwood is being considered for the site of a training fire for local mutual aid fire departments. The 18th century homestead, with its fine view toward Bethel and the Mahoosuc Mountains, was once home to the Cross, later Seames, families. It was then owned for many years by the family of Gen. James D. Alger. Raymond W. Seames, Greenwood's fire chief, said that for the past 40 years the building has been used only sporadically; it has also been vandalized and structurally is badly deteriorated. The training fire would provide local mutual aid departments with a rare opportunity to practice battling a major structure fire under controlled conditions, he said. A decision on whether to go ahead with the exercise is expected shortly, Seames said, but a final go-ahead will depend on weather conditions on the day of the proposed burn.

THIS WEEK AT THE

Moses Mason House

The Bethel Historical Society's Garden and Grounds Committee met recently and made plans for the 1995 gardening season at the Dr. Moses Mason House.

Two new members were added to the committee: Lucia Schwarz and Shireen Vincent. Margaret Joy Tibbetts announced that she was retiring as the head of the committee and Geraldine Howe was selected to chair the committee. Anyone interested in joining the committee is urged to call the Society office at 824-2908. Volunteers are always needed and those wishing to donate surplus plants (particularly old-time perennials) are urged to do so.

The Society's Preservation Committee also met recently and made the recommendation for the 1995 Bethel Historical Society Preservation Award to the Board of Trustees. Kathy Hooke was added to the committee and Ken Bohr was selected to chair the committee, replacing Sally Taylor, who declined to accept the chair for another year. Several projects for the committee's consideration were discussed and a future meeting was planned for later in the month to review proposals.

Two reminders: The fashion show on Saturday, May 20 at the Gehring/NTL house to benefit the Bethel Bicentennial Committee and the 16th Annual Faye Taylor Memorial Art Show will be held on May 27 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Dr. Moses Mason House.

LOOKING BACK

10 years ago: The former Redwood Motel, owned by Paul Carter (constructed and operated by owner Roland Glines), located on Route 2 in Mayville near Paul Carter's garage, was purchased by Edward and Joyce Bassett, owners of Pleasant River Campground in West Bethel, and moved to a location east of the campground (now a part of Pleasant River Motel owned by Francis and Barbara Dumont). Virginia Keniston, retired Bethel librarian, was honored at a reception given at the Bethel Library. Three Bethel students, James Feeney, Sarah Putnam and Katy Holden were among the top 10 honor students at Gould Academy. Raymond and Janis Harrington were presented the first Community Service Award by the Bethel Rotary Club for their promotion of scouting in the area. Deaths: Terry Lee Gordon, Francis "Red" Noyes.

20 years ago: The Great A & P Tea Company store (now the home of the Bethel Area Health Center) closed its doors after 50 years of operation in Bethel; the first store was located on Main Street and moved to the newly constructed facility on Railroad Street in 1968. Mundt-Allen Post was believed to have a "first" when Mrs. Carolyn Brooks took over as the Post commander. Girls' Staters from Telstar Regional High School were: Candy Bennett, delegate, and Marjorie Berry, alternate (Mundt-Allen Post) and Donna Brooks, delegate (Bethel Chamber of Commerce). Death: Susie Lovejoy Virge.

30 years ago: Susan Vogt was selected as "Miss Poppy 1965" by the Mundt-Allen American Legion Auxiliary. "A Visit to the Museum," title of the Crescent Park School Concert directed by Mrs. Edith Eypper, received a tremendous applause for its unique combination of art and music. Discussion of possible sites for the new district school (now SAD44's Telstar Regional High School) included the Spinney property near Chadbourne Lumber Company, Brooks' property opposite the residence of Dr. James Hudson (now Dr. Stuer's), the Luxton property (owned by Mrs. Ruth Cummings) across from the Western Auto Store (now the Alliance Church) (this lot was later chosen for the new school), and the site of the former Grafton Lumber Company mill across from Edwin and Musa Brown's home on Route 26. Timothy Ramage won third honors at Bridgton Academy. Deaths: Ray Taylor, Florence Brown, Bethany Freeman.

40 years ago: The week of May 16 was designated by the Post Office Department as Rural Mail Box Improvement Week. The annual smorgasbord, sponsored by the Bethel Auxiliary of Rumford Community Hospital at Gould Academy's William Bingham Gymnasium, overflowed with couples from Bethel, Waterford, Dixfield and Rumford. The National Training Laboratory in Group Development returned to Gould Academy for its ninth summer. Birth: Alicia LePage. Deaths: Hazel Cash, Etta Peterkin.

50 years ago: Staff Sgt. Paul Stearns was killed in action in Italy. Cpl. Robert Greenleaf, in a letter to his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Sherman Greenleaf, described Nazi barbarism and squalid living conditions in the area of Germany where he was stationed. A blanket of from one to three feet of heavy, wet snow covered the Bethel area. Marriage: Kathleen Wight and John Stone.

Briefly

Selectmen lack quorum

ANDOVER--The Andover Board of Selectmen failed to have a quorum at a regular meeting last week, as only selectman Joseph Madigan showed up. Robert Greeke has resigned, and chairman Harold Frazier was out of town. Frazier had threatened to resign two weeks ago, citing differences with Madigan. Greeke resigned in support of Frazier. Since then, Frazier has said he would not leave the town with only one selectman.

VFW cleans up

BETHEL--The Bethel Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 11363 completed a roadside cleanup of Routes 2 and 26 last week. The project is part of an Adopt-a-Road program started by the Bethel post in 1994. According to past commander Larry Smith, this year's project totaled about one and a half tons of trash -- about half a ton less than last year. He said that once again one of the biggest items found along the roadways was tires. "Last year we picked up 14 tires, and this year 15," Smith said, "so it looks like people don't want to pay for depositing them at their local transfer station. We like to help, but hope people will become more conscious of their responsibilities as well."

Bird Hill subdivision tabled

BETHEL--The Planning Board tabled a subdivision plan submitted by Tom DuBois of the Highland Land Corp. on behalf of Dr. David Merrill of Scarborough. The subdivision would be known as The Meadow at Bird Hill. Fire chief Jim Young wrote a letter to the board, expressing concern that a private road leading to the subdivision is too narrow to allow emergency vehicles to pass each other in case of fire. DuBois agreed to propose turnouts to Ronald Savage, who owns part of the property on which the road is located. Chairman Frank Vogt told Dubois the subdivision would probably be approved if the road issue was resolved.

Newry Clean-up Day details

NEWRY--Selectman announced details Tuesday for the June 3-4 Newry Clean-up Day. There will be two bins located in parking lot 5 at Sunday River Ski Resort. One is for tires only, the other for demolition debris and furniture. A separate area will be set aside for appliances and metal. No household trash or brush is permitted. In other business at the selectmen's meeting, the Newry Cemetery Association is interested in returning the cemetery to town control. Selectman Wendy Hanscom said it is the understanding of selectmen that the association lacks the funds to continue maintaining the cemetery.

Man drowns in McWain Pond

WATERFORD--A former Norway man drowned in a paddle boat accident on McWain Pond last week. Scott Whittemore, 24, of Portland, had been fishing with two companions. The rod in the pedal mechanism on the four-person paddleboat apparently snapped, causing water to come into the craft. When the boat began taking on water, the three men swam toward shore. Robert Allen, 24, and Andrew Washer, 26, made it, but Whittemore did not. His body was recovered on Friday. There were no floatation devices on the boat.

Police officers to be honored

AUGUSTA--Four names will be added to the Maine Law Enforcement Officer's Memorial in Augusta this month. Police officers will gather May 18 for an annual observance. Among the names to be added is that of State Trooper Jeffrey Parola, who died last November when his car overturned. Others include Kennebec County Deputy Sheriff Sgt. Thomas Malloy, shot to death Oct. 9, 1884; Aroostook County Deputy Sheriff Harold Hillman, beaten to death Dec. 21, 1914; and Maine Game Warden Lee Parker, shot to death Sept. 1, 1927. The four new names bring to 72 the number of law enforcement officers who are known to have died in the line of duty in Maine.

Magalloway River development?

LINCOLN PLANTATION--A public hearing is scheduled for June 13 regarding a possible 17-lot residential subdivision on the Magalloway River. Cole-Haan footwear magnate George Denny of Freeport bought the 100-acre property in 1990. The river and nearby Umbagog Lake are favorite spots for fishermen and canoeists seeking undisturbed wilderness. Some local residents are worried about the possible impact of the subdivision. In a February letter to the Dennys, selectmen predicted such a large development might result in a bigger tax bill for the small community, in order to provide municipal services. The hearing is being held by the Land Use Regulation Commission.

More post office closings possible

RUMFORD--The U.S. Postal Service is considering closing the Rumford Center and Rumford Point post offices. About 114 area residents have signed petitions protesting the possible closure. Postal Change Coordinator Carol Niles said the closings are being investigated because there are postal employee vacancies in both offices. Customer surveys asking about residents' mailing habits have been circulated, and an informational meeting will be held next Tuesday at 10 a.m. at the Rumford Center Community Hall.

added to the Jordan Bowl area. A 3,000-foot chairlift, and a minimum of six new trails, are in the works. The new area will be known as "Oz."

King said the new trails will include more glades ski terrain, as well as islands of trees interspersed with open areas. The new design is a departure from the traditional clearcut trails.

Sunday River also plans to boost the snowmaking system, both to accommodate the new area and improve the overall efficiency of the snowmaking operation.

"It will make the system 34 percent bigger than the next largest snowmaking system in New England," King said.

The skiway also plans improvements to the parking area near the South Ridge Lodge, intended to make the traffic flow smoother, according to King.

"We've got a pretty big project here this summer," he said.

The area's mountain bike park opens May 27, for weekends only. The park will go on a seven-day schedule July 1.

King said several trails will be added to the bike trail network this season.

FROM THE

Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce

Saturday, May 20, Summit Hotel, Sunday River Ski Resort, the Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce will be recognizing board members at their 26th Annual Awards Banquet in addition to several other citizenship and business awards.

Barbara D. Brown will be recognized as "Volunteer of the Year." She has been active in the Chamber of Commerce since the 1960s and was one of the original organizers of the Chamber's Annual Awards Ceremony, with the first one being held in 1969. Barbara was chairperson of publicity for the chamber for many years and then was treasurer. Most recently, Barbara chaired the Nominating Committee, was secretary and has helped with many special projects. Barbara has recently retired from her position on the board of directors after 26-plus years of involvement. She truly deserves our heartfelt thanks and recognition for her years of service.

We will also honor George Larson, who retired from his position on the board at the end of 1994. George was elected to the chamber board soon after his arrival in Bethel. During his term he was president-elect, president, past president, and treasurer. George has been a great asset to the chamber especially in the accounting area. We thank him for his time and expertise.

Finally, the chamber will be recognizing its outgoing president, Linda Varrell. Linda has done a phenomenal job with the chamber during a time of transition. Her high ethics and professionalism have been an inspiration to many. She has served as board member, president-elect and president during her term taking on several committee chairmanships as well. She will continue on the chamber board as past president. Many thanks to Linda for all her hours of service to the chamber.

The Chamber Awards will be held this Saturday, May 20, at the Summit Hotel. Reservations must be made by Wednesday at 5 p.m. by calling 824-2282, chamber office. The cost is $25 per person and includes a full buffet meal and hors doeuvres starting at 6 p.m. Special guests that evening will be the Bethel Community Band and speakers Chaitanya York and Henry Bascom. There will be a silent auction with many items featuring Maine destinations and products. Some of the items include: a season ticket to Ski Mt. Abram; a 1/2-day guided fishing trip on Kezar Lake with White Birch Guide Service; a Kennebec River White Water Raft Trip for two with Saco Bound/Downeast; an Old Orchard Beach Get-A-Way for two nights at the Edgewater on the Atlantic; a bag full of gift items, compliments of L.L. Bean in Freeport; a three-day mid-week golf school package including two nights lodging, all meals and golf lessons at the Bethel Inn and Country Club.

From the Bethel Police log:

Geek seeks eros or IBM

On May 14 at 7:55 p.m. a Bethel resident reported an unknown person was calling her and harassing her. The caller made an obscene proposal, then asked if she had a computer for sale. The complainant was advised to get the identity of callers in the future, if possible.

Thursday, May 11

At 10:15 p.m. a Sunday River condominium resident reported she had been assaulted and threatened by a Hanover resident at the Sud's Pub. The incident was stopped by the bartender, and all parties departed without further incident. The complainant was undecided about whether to press charges.

Friday, May 12

At 9:21 a.m. a Route 26 resident reported that a male operating a Chevy S-10 truck had been blowing the horn, while driving by her residence. She said he had also followed her when she left the Big Apple on Railroad Street. Police learned from the Oxford Police Department that the subject, of Oxford, has a paper route that takes him to New Hampshire. Oxford Police advised the subject the harassment will stop or charges will be filed.

Sunday, May 14

At 1:50 a.m. A Michigan resident reported that while his Ford pickup truck was parked behind the Bethel Fire Station, someone had removed all four wheel covers. A search of the area turned up nothing. Value of the wheel covers was $500.

At 2:11 a.m. a West Bethel resident reported that while he was away from his apartment, someone had forced his way into the residence and removed a number of items, total value $2,555. There were no signs of forced entry, although the complainant showed police the door could be opened by forcefully pulling the doorknob, even though the door was locked. Items taken included a TV, compact disk sterio, cordless phone, microwave, walkman cassette, and approximately 100 CD's. The complainant was advised it was important to locate the serial numbers for the items. The case is still under investigation.

This report highlights points of interest from the Bethel Police Department log, but does not include all reports of police activity.

Dareth Howard was third in the 100-meter hurdles, and Jessica Pike fourth in the 100. Seneca Brooke took first in the javelin, with Dawn Waisenan second and Michelle McInnis fourth. In the discus, Megan Meisner was third and Seneca Brooke fourth. In the shot put event, Tabatha Mason was second, Jessica Pike third, and Brandy Brooks fourth.

Mountain Valley 79, Mt. Abram 40.5, Telstar 39.5

May 11--Amy Howe won the 800-, 1,600-, and 3,200-meter events, with Donna Lawrence fourth in the 1,600 and second in the 3,200. Jessie Wight came in second in the 100-meter hurdles, Rachel Stowall fourth in the 100, and Dareth Howard third in the 100. Jessie Wight was second in the triple jump, and third in the long jump. Sarah Seames finished second in the high jump. Seneca Brooke was third in the javelin, Michelle McInnis third in the discus, and Tabatha Mason fourth in the shot put.

Boys' Track

Livermore Falls 63, Telstar 54, Carrabec 47

May 9--Todd Wing won the high, triple, and long jump events as the Telstar team finished second. Joel Riley won the 1,600-meter race, with Jason Billings coming in fourth. Riley finished second in the 800, with Justin Hutchins fourth. Billings was second in the 3,200. Tim Adams was second in the 200, and fourth in the 100.

Mountain Valley 76, Telstar 53, Mt. Abram

May 11--Todd Wing won four events -- the high, long, and triple jumps, and the javelin, as Telstar finished second. Joel Riley was second in the 800, and third in the 1,600. Jason Billings was second in the 3,200. Justin Gilbert finished second in the shot put.

Varsity Baseball

Telstar 3, Lisbon 2

May 8--Pitcher Tim Remington struck out 13 and improved his record to 4-0, as Telstar beat Lisbon. Cory Koch hit a double, with one run and one RBI. Ken Mason and Wade Luxton went two for three, and Josh Adams one for three. The Rebels were trailing going into the bottom of the 7th when Ken Mason led off with a single to left field and then stole second. After one out, Cory Koch doubled to drive in the tying run. After Clint Myers reached on an infield error, a passed ball, and a second out, Adam Newell hit a ground ball to score Cory Koch with the winning run. "This was a big win for us, as it showed we have the ability to come from behind when we have to," said coach Bob Remington.

Telstar 12, Carrabec 4

May 10--Tim Remington and Adam Newell combined for three home runs and seven RBI's as Telstar defeated Carrabec. Clint Myers had two hits, including a triple, and three runs scored. Cory Koch and Wade Luxton each had two singles. Clint Myers struck out seven batters to earn the victory on the mound. "We've been working very hard on our approach to hitting, and we really broke out of a slump today," coach Bob Remington said.

Telstar 6, Gould 0

May 13--Josh Adams, Clint Myers, and Tim Remington each got a double as Telstar beat Gould. Ken Mason hit a triple. The winning pitcher was Tim Hebert.

Varsity Softball

Telstar 5, Lisbon 4

May 8--Telstar beat Lisbon in eight innings, with pitcher Angie Lovejoy holding the opposition to four hits. The Rebels rallied for two runs with two outs in the seventh inning to force extra innings. Shye Buck drew a bases-loaded walk to force in the winning run. Laura Seames had an RBI double and Becky Chandler plated one run with a sacrifice bunt. Lori Davis contributed two singles and M.J. Learned scored two runs, including the game winner. Beth Howe cut down a Lisbon runner to end the sixth inning.

Carrabec 5, Telstar 4

May 10--Carrabec scored twice in the seventh inning to beat Telstar. "It was a well-played game defensively -- well-pitched by both Telstar's Angie Lovejoy and Carrabec's Lucy Campbell," said coach Jim Lunney. Beth Howe was 3 for 3 in the game.

Baseball

The team has plenty of experience. Returning players include seniors Peter Miserocchi, Kevin Rosenberg, and Remington; juniors Josh Adams and Newell; and sophomores Wade Luxton, Cory Koch, Ken Mason, and Myers.

Three other sophomores -- Jason Berry, Tony Buker, and Hebert -- are newcomers.

While the team's hitting started out slowly, the bats have come to life more in recent games.

"When the weather warms up, the hitting gets more consistent," said Remington.

Telstar's current record is 6-1. Remington sees Telstar, Jay, Mountain Valley, and Leavitt as the contenders in the MVC.

In early season action, Telstar lost to Leavitt while Newell was out of the lineup with an injury.

"With him in the lineup and Tim on the mound, I think we're the better team.

"Baseball is a funny game. Little things, and a little luck, make a difference," Remington said.

Softball

Other returning starters include juniors M.J. Learned (right field) and Becky Chandler (catcher), and sophomores Beth Howe (shortstop), and Sarah Richardson (third base).

Although hitting has been the team's weak point so far, Howe and Richardson make a formidable combination.

"They're our catalysts offensively. Beth is our big hitter, and Sarah the big run scorer," said Lunney.

The tenth player on the squad is fleet-footed freshman Dannie Littlehale, who plays part-time.

While Telstar lost big in the first game of the season against defending champion Madison High School, the rest of the teams in the conference are evenly matched.

"Put Madison aside, and it's a free-for-all with everyone else," said Lunney.

Despite the close losses, Lunney thinks his team is ready for the fight.

"They keep their poise in the close ones," he said.

petition in June.

Underclassmen round out the 16-member team, and Tornrose hopes that means a brighter future -- especially if a few more students come out for the squad.

Junior Justin Hutchins is strong in the 400- and 800-meter distances, and freshman Dana Howe shows promise in those events as well, Tornrose said.

Other prospects in running include sophomores Jason Billings in the 3,200, Dan Emerson in the 300, and Tim Adams in the 100-yard dash.

Hurdlers include sophomore Fred Emerson and junior Ian Richardson.

"Ian is strong in the javelin, too. He's thrown 120 feet. He could qualify for the regionals," Tornrose said.

Tornrose thinks sophomore shot putter Justin Gilbert has a chance to qualify for the regional competition, too.

"We have a lot of eager kids coming on," said Tornrose.

Girls' team

The girls' team also boasts many underclassmen on the 20-member squad.

While depth is still a problem overall for coach John Applin, he does have good numbers in the weights events.

There, juniors Dawn Waisanen, Brandy Brooks, Heidi Blake, Jessica Coolidge, sophomores Jana Mason, Jessica Pike, Cora Gallagher, Megan Meisner, and freshmen Amber Brooke, Tabatha Mason, and Michelle McInnis give Applin plenty of competitors.

Other sophomores include high jumper and sprinter Sarah Seames, sprinters Rachel Stowell and Dareth Howard, and hurdler/jumper Jessie Wight. Junior distance runner Donna Lawrence completes the list of underclassmen.

The three seniors on the team are co-captains Amy Howe and Seneca Brooke, and Lisa Haines.

Howe has already qualified for the regional competition in the 800 and 1,600 events.

"She's an above-average distance runner," Applin said.

Sarah Seames has also qualified for the regionals in the high jump.

Applin's team is usually in the position of setting individual goals for meets, rather than looking for wins.

"Any victories we're likely to have are individual," he said.

Applin said Telstar can be more competitive against other small Class C schools.

"Against schools like Carrabec and Mt. Abram, we can go head-to-head pretty well," he said.

Andover

by Karen McKay

Charlotte Sennett, North Rumford, and Lila Farrington, Rumford entertained the East Andover Community Club at the Sennett home on May 8.

Two officers were absent. Betty Moore acted as president and Lorena Simmons as secretary.

Betty Moore won the special prize and Violet Swain the door prize.

The Club's annual cash award to an Andover Telstar Senior was approved. This will be presented at the Alumni Banquet on June 3.

Violet Swain, co-chairperson for the East Andover Community Picnic planned for Aug. 27 at Schneider's Grove lined out plans.

Barbara Meisner and Marge Stinson had met and planned the contest for that day, for children ages one through 18; ages one and two: dress as a Nursery Rhyme character; ages three through five: decorate a two-, three- or four-wheel vehicle; ages six through 10: dress as a famous person or a story book character; ages 11 through 18: decorate a hat. Prizes will be awarded for prettiest, most unusual, most original and honorable mention in each category.

Members were appointed duties for the day. More plans will be made at the June 12 and August 14 meetings.

The picnic is open to anyone living in East Andover or have ever lived in East Andover and their families.

After-dinner games are planned.

Each person attending is asked to bring food for their own family and something to share. Bring place settings, chairs, tables or blankets. The club will furnish desserts. Ice cream and soft drinks will be given to guests through 18 years old. The above will also be on sale. There will be a grill available.

A delicious luncheon was served by the hostesses. Mothers' Day gifts were exchanged.

The June 12 meeting will be with Mary Bailey with Phyllis Farrar as co-hostess.

There will be a public supper held at the elementary school on Saturday, May 20, from 5-7 p.m. The menu will be spaghetti with meat sauce, cole slaw, garlic bread, and strawberry shortcake for dessert. All proceeds to benefit the Andover Parent/Teacher Advance tickets available, please call 392-4381.

The elementary school students are still collecting Campbell Soup labels. The last day of collection will be on May 31. Labels may be given to any student or dropped off at the school office. Please continue to save the labels over the summer months. The class who has the highest average of labels returned from February through May will be treated to an ice cream party, compliments of Mrs. Cheryl Morin. The St. Jude's Bike-A-Thon will be held on May 20 beginning at 9 a.m. Bike riders will be looking for sponsors and donors to help support this worthwhile cause. Congratulations to Steven Andexler, student of the week, May 1-5.

A big thank you to all volunteers that gathered recently to build the new fence, clean, and rake the town field. Great job, the field looks great.

All crafters and yard salers are reminded to contact Nancy at 392-2131 to reserve a space on the common during the Community Yard and Craft Sale on June 17. Tables may also be rented. You may also have your home address listed on the sale flyer map if you wish to hold a sale at your house to coincide with the town-wide event. All proceeds from the space rentals and home listings to benefit the Olde Home Days events.

Sympathy is extended to the Jodrey family for the death of John. John grew up in Andover, he served the Rumford-Mexico area as a fireman for many years.

Sympathy is extended to the Dube and Legault families for the death of Mrs. Rose Dube. Mrs. Dube made her home in Andover with Mr. and Mrs. Al Legault, her nephew.

Several have returned from their winter stay elsewhere. Part-time Floridians Ethelene and Eugene Merrill have returned home for the summer. Mrs. Minnie Akers has returned from her winter home in Crystal Beach, Fla. and Mrs. Dot Campbell recently returned from Vermont where she stays with her daughter.

Watch out for the wildlife when out and about. Seems like they're all active, including moose and black flies. A family of foxes are residing near the Ken Fields residence, be cautious when driving and look out for the mom and her four babes.

Saturday morning, April 29, little miss Abigail Grace Krolak arrived at a Brunswick hospital to join her parents, Brian and Stephanie Krolak of Brunswick. Stephanie is the daughter of Paul and Judy (Lapham) Halle of Lisbon and granddaughter of Mrs. Phyllis (Lapham) Bancroft, and Bill of Albany.

Norma Salway and I went to Oxford Friday afternoon to meet Kassi and Katy Gatchell of Portland. Katy came home with us for an overnight visit. Saturday, Norma and David took her home. They stopped in Auburn to pick up Christopher Swan and take him with them to a Sea Dogs ball game. They met Brandon there.

Mrs. Helen Curtis of Mechanic Falls spent the weekend with me.

Mrs. Dottie Adams of Hanover and Mrs. Mary Keniston were recent callers here, also Mrs. Mary Paine.

Some local talent will pose as models at the Fashion Show on Saturday, May 20, modeling clothing from the turn of the century to the '40s and '60s prom and wedding dresses, etc. This is to benefit the Bethel Bicentennial.

Miss Ivy Philbrook has returned to her home here.

The Ladies' Aid met for the annual meeting Monday at the building. Officers elected were Simmone Lavallee, president; Christine Morton, vice president; Lucille Largesse, secretary; Elsie Fuller, treasurer. A discussion of fund raising resulted in offers from several members to engineer a supper sometime thru the summer or fall. Discussion of condition of the kitchen ceiling terminated in a decision to put the job out for bids.

A large yard sale is planned for May 27. Sue Nelson requested table space for the Church for a yard and bake sale. Requests are out for items for both the secondhand goods and the baked goods for either or both benevolent causes. For the Ladies' Aid, contact Simmone Lavallee; for the Church, contact Sue Nelson.

A doe stood in the middle of the road. It was rainy and I'd been driving slowly expecting a moose. Slowing to a crawl, I watched her as she stood alert. She had turned her head in my direction briefly, then back to watching the road ahead of us, or perhaps she watched movement of light in the trees from the headlights. She was only a few feet away when she looked back, hesitated, turned around and bounded away. A lovely sight.

More explanation about the Craft Swap. No money is involved, as each participant will be given a book of coupons which she will use to "buy" the craft items auctioned. This swap is open to anyone who has homemade items, including kitchen goodies to swap for other people's handiwork.

Sunday, May 21 at the Bryant Pond Baptist Church Andy Alexson (Village Missions) will be guest speaker at the 10:30 a.m. service and at the 6 p.m. service Mr. Doug Twitchell and young people from the South Paris Baptist Church will present a puppet and missionary service.

Leora Farrington has given the Historical Society two pieces of china. Curator Larry Billings has put some handouts in the historical museum. The society is interested in our heritage and studying all aspects of local, state and national history. Curator Larry Billings wants to let people know that some of the things he has written are available through the society, Basil Seguin or himself. He cannot afford to publish an elaborate book on his own and does not want the society to invest its money in his writing. However, he feels it is important to make his ideas available to those who may be interested. We all like to share what we hope is useful information. Mary, Larry and Paul Billings recently visited the Portland Museum of Art. The Historical Society opens its museum on June 3.

Judith Grover tent #17 DUV met on Monday, May 8 for a regular meeting with 19 members present and one guest. Bessie House filled in for Kathleen McAllister, as she couldn't talk, she had a cyst removed from her vocal cords. Sally Sawyer filled in as senior vice president. Memorial Day plans were discussed. Nick Clements will be the speaker. The Mahoosuc Band will furnish music for the parade. Everyone is invited to attend. The Memorial Day program will be held on Monday, May 29 at the Honor Roll at 1 p.m. Parade will follow. All school children, Scouts, 4-H's or anyone who wishes may march with us. Delegates and alternates appointed for Convention are Helvi Cary and JoAnn Crockett as delegates, Jane Wardwell and Phyllis Jordan as alternates. There will be a silent auction at the next meeting. Kathleen McAllister and Alice Hoyt will be on refreshment committee. Two readings "I am your flag" and a Mothers' Day reading were read under good of the order. General Orders #2 and a letter from Dept. President Gail Butterfield were read. Refreshments were served by Sally Sawyer and Elsie Bonney. Next meeting is June 12. Convention will be held June 15 and 16 at the Atrium Inn and Convention Center, Cook's Corner, Brunswick.

The WHS Alumni held a meeting on Wednesday to write invitations to the seniors and 70-, 60- and 50-year alumni. The Alumni Banquet will be held at the American Legion Hall in Locke Mills, on Saturday, June 3.

Memorial Day program and parade will be held on Monday, May 29. The program starts at 1 p.m. at the Honor Roll followed by the parade. Speaker will be Nick Clements. All are welcome to attend.

Greenwood City

On May 4 I decided to travel the Bulldozer Road, which leads from my house to the farm fields. The pond and sky were so blue. The fields were fresh and green; To me the state of Maine Is the best that can be seen. To travel to some other states, Is just fine it's true. But the state where you were born Is the only one for you.

So I took my staff recently given to me and started out.

The wilderness music was clear if you had an ear to hear.

I passed a clump of birches laced with molten silver. The spruces stood tall and black against the sky.

I lingered beneath a pine to listen to the eerie sound of the wind through its top.

Near here I had often found the twin flowers, violets and bluets. They are such fragile things, with slender stems, barely able to support their tiny flowers, yet here they grow in the northern forest, blooming whether seen or not, and producing their almost microscopic seeds to fall into this huge earth, towered over by pine and spruce. None were open today, It was too early.

It was quiet on the pond except for a few ducks. Sky and water were distinguishable only by the violet band of spruces that separated them, a truly magnificent display. It seems a pity that so few notice the beauty.

When I came to the gate, I stepped into the field and followed the wall with a barbed wire fence above it to keep the cattle from straying. This brought to mind a time, when my husband, many years ago, was building a fence and lost his pocketbook, here somewhere. He never found it.

At the end of the wall I climbed over it and took another part of the road leading home.

Deer tracks were in many places.

A red squirrel chattered his annoyance at my intrusion.

I sat on a rock to view the mountains and the pond sleeping below. After a while, however, I became aware of a strange sadness. I felt a longing for something forever lost, which I could not comprehend.

I struggled to the road and went on home.

The valley was quiet, full of hushed peace. The summer to come and all those other summers raced through my mind. I could visualize clearly, nostalgically all that had happened and then I was home again.

This was animal week here. The otter was out for a swim, two moose visited. They made their way across a neighbor's yard to the pond, a bear crossed the road in front of a car just a short way from my home, but the biggest nuisance of all was the porcupine that visited my steps each night to gnaw my logs. For two nights I have put moth chips on the top step and Mr. P. doesn't seem to like those.

Fay Holt had a birthday on May 7 and her family took her out for dinner, then they went to David's for cake and ice cream. It was a very nice day.

Rena Curtis and family were on a camping trip to Muskegan Lake for the weekend. They reported a good time.

Time sure is passing quickly. In just four short weeks, I will graduate from high school.

Joelle is happy to report that the Silver family cat has returned home safe and sound. They'd been worried for quite awhile, so it was quite a relief when she showed up the other day.

Bridget Billings participated in her first track meet this week.

Congratulations to Mandy McInnis, who recently received a $1,000 scholarship from J.C. Penney. Mandy returned from Mexico this weekend and reports that she had a wonderful time.

Tammy Billings has completed her semester courses through I.T.V.

Dawn Davis is home from Trinity College for the summer.

That's it from North Woodstock this week; short column!

East Bethel

by Nancy Mercer

East Bethel Cemetery will have clean-up on May 20 and a rain date of May 21. Time about 9 a.m. to start.

Dori Hallman and daughters, Heather and Whitney, of Durham visited Arlene Harrington on May 6.

Reggie Andrews returned to Halifax, Nova Scotia on May 8. He made the return trip okay.

Bethel

Word has been received that Elise "June" Little Wentzell (Mrs. Rodney) died in South Carolina on May 12, 1995. A memorial service will be held at a later date.

South Woodstock

by

Joe Pete, Laurene and Danielle Appleby stopped by for a visit one night this past week. Danielle was busy doing homework while they were visiting. Always glad to have them come.

While Cleo Ryerson was in Florida her 20 year old cat died. It was her father's, Walter Appleby's cat that Cleo adopted when her father passed away. I think this is pretty old for a cat and will be missed a lot. It must have used more than its nine lives many times over.

Kyle Curtis, Tommy Poland, Tracy Grover, Sandra Monzo and Samantha Poland travelled to attend the graduation of Rachel Curtis in Biddeford, Thursday. Rachel has been taking a CNA course and also working at a nursing home while doing the studies. Rachel was top one in her class of 20 students and had an average of 96. Congratulations Rachel. I heard you love your work.

Special birthday wishes to Paula Smith. I'm especially sorry I missed this one. Also birthday wishes to my niece Chea Davis, who was picked Miss Poppy this week. Niece going Chea. My sister Evelyn Dunn also has a birthday on May 19.

Jamie Monzo made the honor roll in the sixth grade at Oxford Elementary School.

Beverly Stevens stopped by for a few minutes to return a basket used at her retirement party. Beverly said she's been busy and every day seems like a Saturday so far.

Larry Billings, curator, Woodstock Historical Society reports that he has given some china and an antique doll to the society. Also some articles he has written are available from the society. Basil Seguin's bookstore, or Larry himself. Historical Society members are very dedicated to their organization. We especially thank those who have been doing fund-raising lately and all who have contributed. It is never easy to keep a historical society in a small town going. We are fortunate so many do for the community.

Quote of the Week: "The number one rule for garage sales is to be sure what you're selling didn't come from your friends as birthday gifts."

North Newry

by
Gil Seeley

Thank you to all who helped build the backstop at the Newry Town Office. Your help was truly appreciated!

The winners for the summer camp scholarships are: Bill Marshall, Sarah Marshall, Erin Osgood, Wade Osgood, Sarah Reed, and Jessie Wight. Congratulations!

Girls' softball is in full swing. They are playing every Friday and have a full summer of games ahead.

Is that you Bill Wight, singing with friends, Phil Beckwith and Leo Ames? Were you singing or laughing because you had such a good time at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Snowmobile Association at the Ramada Inn in Lewiston, enjoying a banquet of Chablis, soups, roast beef, breaded haddock, chicken, salad and dessert? Or were you laughing at the Maine Humorist Tim Sample? Where was Sylvia? Well, I'm sure she was also there enjoying all that fun. It must have been quite a night. Bill received an appreciation plaque for working hard for the Maine Snowmobile Association during the years. The next directors' meeting will be May 16 at the Augusta Elks Lodge.

Services were performed at the Newry Community Church on May [illegible] a.m., with Pastor Rodney Hanscom at the pulpit and daughter Nancy at the organ. The Message of the Day was "Paul and Dwight" from Scriptures Acts 9:36-43. "And Philip baptized the eunuch and he went on his way with the Spirit of the Lord." Also St. John 10:22-30. A special was given by Gil Seeley. "Belief" from James 1-17.

The Mothers Club of Newry met Monday night, May 8, at the Town Building with sub-presidents Karlene Bachelder and Gil Seeley. A prayer was said by Gil and the meeting came to order. Secretary-treasurer Olive Anderson had the roll call, read the notes of the last meeting, brought the finances up to date, reported on sending cards to the shut-ins, etc., and mentioned that the three graduates of Newry would receive each a $50 check from the club and the Boots Morton Fund. It was voted to go to the Town & Country Inn for the annual banquet on June 12 at 6:30 p.m. All those who wish to participate should contact Karlene so that we will know how many are going and make reservations. So far, we know of eight who plan to go. There will be no meetings until Sept. 11 at 7:30 p.m. at the Town Building for election of officers. After the meeting was adjourned, snacks and a quiz game on "how many ways can you cook potatoes" were enjoyed.

Seven members of the "Newry Bowling Gang" were at the Oxford Lanes, Rumford, one day last week. They were: Karlene Bachelder, Gil Seeley, Betsy Clark, Jane Young, Louise Tetley, Doris Parent and Bea Lowell. Betsy was high on the first string, beating Karlene by two pins. Karlene was high on the second string, and Gil was high on the third string. But on the overall scores, Karlene was high on both the singles and triples. Of the "Righties," Jane was high on the singles, beating Louise by one pin, she also was high on the triples, beating Louise by two pins. Scores were as follows: Karlene, 2 spares; Betsy, one spare; Gil, one strike and two spares; Jane, one spare; Louise, three spares; Bea, two spares; Doris, two spares.

"Briefly"... Eat the weeds, that is, eat the dandelions... They are coming up on the lawn. I just picked some. The greens are an old remedy for kidney disease and dropsy. Also, in ancient times they were prescribed for stones. They are a great source of vitamin A, G, C, and E, which prevents cataracts. Calcium, potassium and minerals are also found in dandelions.

East Stoneham

by Eleanor Nelson

Harold Strout is in the Togus hospital where he underwent surgery. He hopes to be up and home soon.

Matthew Nelson and Luke Jackson "crossed the bridge" from Cub Scouts into the Boy Scouts at the Blue and Gold Banquet and Awards Program which was held Saturday, May 6, at the New Suncook School in Lovell. A potluck supper preceded the meeting and program, and they had a packed house. Many earned awards were presented to the Cub Scouts of Pack 155 at this time.

Helen Havista from Florida is visiting with her brother and wife, Walter and Carolyn Heino, arriving here Sunday for a few days.

Kenny Smith and friend Bea gave a welcome open house for his parents, Nate and Eleanor Smith, at Waterford Acres, Sunday, with a potluck dinner in the family room. Present were Charles and Arlene Merrill, Rob and Elaine Laguex, Lois Beaudoin, Phyllis Adams and John and Joan Grover.

The Mother-Daughter Banquet (or May Family Banquet, as it is now called) had a good turnout on Tuesday evening at the North Waterford Congregational Church. After a delicious dinner, cooked by Merle McAllister and Ella Rolfe, there was a musical program by the Prospective Mollyockett Chapter Sweet Adelines, directed by Wendi Lee Porter. It was all very enjoyable and if you haven't heard these ladies, you are missing something. They are the greatest. I believe there are 15 of them. Dick Dunlop spoke about Pilgrim Lodge.

The yard sale and bake sale that took place at the East Stoneham Congregational Church vestry was a success. This was put on by the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, Hannah F. Richardson Tent 19 and is to help pay for the charter members' special flags. These women organized the D.U.V. in Stoneham in 1924 and are fondly remembered for their good work in this patriotic order. Individuals may buy a flag for their own deceased member(s) from Eleanor Nelson. They are in now, and available. The D.U.V. will be having their own Memorial Services at their meeting at the K of P Hall on May 24, and they will be having public Memorial Services at the Church on May 28, by the Memorial Plaque, and will march to the cemetery to honor a veteran, stopping at the brook on the way to remember those lost at sea. There will be a Stoneham Church meeting on May 17 and a Parish meeting on May 25.

The Eleanor B. Forbes-Goodwill Group will be having their annual Spring Sale at Goodwill Hall of The Universalist Church on Saturday, May 20 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. This is the day that rhubarb pies will be on sale, by the piece or by the whole pie. There will be other homemade food, crafts and "white elephants" on sale also. A light lunch will be available as well.

Forward Fellowship members will gather on Monday evening, May 22 at 5:30 p.m. at the church and then depart for the annual "eat out" meeting.

Sympathy is extended to the family of our former High Street neighbor Norine (Rena Ring) Kujala.

Traditionally, pictures of the graduating seniors of West Paris are displayed in the West Paris Post Office before graduation. The Postmaster, Pat Morey would like to have all seniors bring their pictures in as soon as possible.

West Paris librarian, Connie Bacon has received the following new books at the Library: "Jennie Glenroy" by Elizabeth Ogilvie; "Insomnia" by Stephen King; "Bloodline" by Gerry Boyle; "Home Song" by LaVyrle Spencer; "The Lottery Winner" by Mary Higgins Clark; "Dispatches From Maine" by John Gould; "Valley of the Sun" by Louis L'Amour; "The Celestine Prophecy" by James Redfield; "Debt of Honor" by Tom Clancy; "The Glass Lake" by Maeve Binchy; "Nobody's Fool" by Richard Russo; "The Giver" by Lois Lowry. In the Youth section our newest arrival is "Shadow in the North" and "The Ruby in the Smoke" by Philip Pullman. For Beginners the new arrival is "Lost Moose" by Jan Slepian.

Howdy, folks. This is a lovely morning, the 9th day of May, and time for me to get my news ready to go.

Last Monday evening, Peggy and I attended Deaf Awareness Night at Franklin Grange in Bryant Pond. It was a very interesting meeting, where we could try to imagine what it would be like if we could not hear what is going on. Hillary Sherman, from Wales Grange, was with us and signed several songs. It is quite an art, being able to sign songs.

Oxford Pomona Grange was hosted by Bear Mountain Grange on May 2, with quite a good attendance. This was a surprise meeting and our Lecturer, Stanley Howe, had invited some younger people to come fill some of the offices. I was lucky to have a very efficient young lady take my place as Master for the evening. Stanley had planned a very nice program, and we enjoyed the evening. Our next meeting, on June 6, will be hosted by Alder River Grange in East Bethel, and this will be election of officers.

Wednesday forenoon found us in Lewiston to get some supplies for the C.W.A. supper to be held at West Paris Grange and to take care of other errands.

We had been invited to join Bryce and Barbara Yates at the Sunday River Skiway's Summit Hotel Restaurant for lunch on Saturday, and we certainly accepted the invitation. We had a real good lunch and then brother Bryce gave us a tour of the hotel and a riding tour of most of Sunday River Skiway layout of buildings. What a city they have up there! After touring the skiway, we toured other places of interest.

Sister Peggy attended the dance at West Paris Grange in the evening on Saturday.

Marsha Baxter from Oxford, called on Mary Lovejoy on Wednesday. On Saturday, David Small from Kennebunkport was a visitor at the Lovejoys.

There will be a dance at West Paris Grange on May 20, with music by the Richard Felt Orchestra. This dance will be for the benefit of the Sportsman's Club.

Gould Academy Top Ten Seniors -- 1995

Leah Bonnema

Following graduation, Leah Bonnema will travel to Hungary, where she spent six months studying during her junior year. Her interest in Hungary was sparked when, as a freshman at Gould, she participated in a two-week exchange visit to the Varga Katalin School in Szolnok, near Budapest.

Leah is a member of the women's JV tennis team, and played on the women's varsity soccer team during the fall trimester. The daughter of Garret and Melody Bonnema of Bethel, she will enroll at McGill University in the fall of 1996.

Keavy Cook

A National Honor Society member and National Merit Commended Student, Keavy Cook has received numerous awards and honors during her four years at Gould, including the Edmond J. Vachon Award for outstanding contribution to the school and achievement in the community, and the Annie Daley Courchesne Award for Humanitarian Achievements. She is a competitive athlete who has been a member of the cross country running team, the cross country ski team, and the cycling team, and has served as one of eighteen student proctors who comprise Gould's leadership program.

Keavy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rusty Cook of Dover, NH. She will attend Williams College in the fall.

Tamara Bucknell-Pogue

Tamara Bucknell-Pogue will attend Bates College in September. A National Honor Society member, she recently became the first female student at Gould to be certified as a volunteer ski patroller.

The daughter of Donald Pogue and Susan Bucknell of West Hartford, CT, Tamara played on last fall's championship field hockey team and will appear in this spring's musical production, "The Fantasticks" on May 19th and 20th.

Jill Huntsberger

Jill Huntsberger will attend Colby College, where she was accepted under the early decision program. A member of the National Honor Society and a Bingham Scholar, she is a student dormitory proctor and has been active in Gould's drama and musical groups, as well as playing women's varsity soccer and lacrosse.

The daughter of Debra Huntsberger of Kennebunk and the late Ronald Anderson, as a junior Jill received the Wellesley Book Award, honoring a female member of the junior class with exceptional qualities in the areas of academic performance, character, and contributions to extracurricular and/or community life.

Kendra Hutchinson

Kendra Hutchinson, the daughter of Sue Hutchinson and Tom Hutchinson, both of Bethel, was recently awarded a National Merit Scholarship. She competed for one of approximately 6,700 scholarships with over one million students who entered the 1995 Merit Program, and plans to use the award to study at New York University next year.

Kendra has been a member of Gould's women's varsity soccer and lacrosse teams. As a junior, she was honored with the Renssalaer Award, which recognizes outstanding accomplishments in science and mathematics. She spent the winter term of her senior year living and studying in Madrid, Spain.

Ben Kamilewicz

A National Honor Society member and student dormitory proctor, Benjamin Kamilewicz is the son of Dexter and Gretchen Kamilewicz of Yarmouth. He is a highly competitive cross country skier who represented New England at this winter's Junior Olympics in Fairbanks, Alaska.

In addition to his academic and athletic achievements, Ben plays the drums in Gould's jazz band, and is also a member of the band "Stunt Double", a group of Gould seniors who have entertained at assemblies and at local venues. He will attend Williams College in the fall.

Marie Lowell

Marie Lowell, the daughter of David Lowell of Newry and Lillian Williamson of Bethel, has been a member of the women's varsity tennis team and the field hockey team. In March, she returned from Enghien, France, where she lived and studied during the winter term.

Marie is a four-year student at Gould and an Alger Scholar. She plans to attend Alfred University in the fall.

Nancy Morgan

Nancy Morgan, the daughter of Maynard and Linda Morgan of Albany, is the 1995 Gould Academy Valedictorian. She is a member of the National Honor Society who last year received the Bausch and Lomb Science Award in recognition of her outstanding academic achievement and superior intellectual promise in the field of science.

A member of the women's varsity tennis team and last fall's championship field hockey team, she has chosen to attend Alfred University next year.

Anna Mosca

Anna Mosca will attend Bradford College, where she will continue to pursue her interest in the theatre. While at Gould, she has starred in productions of "Lovers", "Arsenic and Old Lace", "Spoon River Anthology", and "Black Comedy". In addition, she sang in the chorus of last year's musical, "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown", and is the stage manager for "The Fantasticks", this spring's musical production.

Anna is the daughter of William and Susan Mosca of Lovell.

Jessica Trundy

Jessica Trundy has been a member of the nordic ski team at Gould. Although injured for most of the past season, she was able to compete in the New England Prep School Championships and played a key role in securing Gould's third place finish. As a junior, she helped to lead the women's nordic team to a first place finish in the championships. The daughter of Gregory and Donna Trundy of Rumford, she is also a member of the yearbook staff and the Blue Key Club, a service group which assists in Admissions Office functions.

Jess will be attending the Colorado School of the Mines in the fall.

'The Fantasticks' at Gould

The longest running musical in the history of American theatre comes to Bethel with the Gould Academy student production of "The Fantasticks" on May 19 and 20. The eight-member cast will perform 12 songs, including "Try to Remember," "Soon It's Gonna Rain," and "Plant a Radish."

Co-directed by drama instructor Douglas Alford and music instructor Paul Nelson, the play is a funny and heartwarming look into the pitfalls of love and growing up. "To paraphrase Tom Jones, the musical's writer, it's essentially about a boy, a girl, two mothers and a wall," said Alford. "Done in the comedia d'arte style, the plot appears to be very simple, but is actually quite complex."

Bonnie Crocker '96, Allen Siegrist '95, Anneliese Bass '96, Tamara Bucknell-Pogue '95, Quentin Stockwell '95, Caitlin Bass '98, Rob Blake '95, and Chip Liscombe '96 have been rehearsing daily since the last week of February. All members of Gould Academy singing groups, the cast strives for excellence in every scene, according to Alford. "This is a very talented and hard-working group of young people," he said. "There have been a lot of late-night rehearsals and they have done great."

Not only have the student players been studying their scripts, they have studied the original show as well. In April the cast went to New York City to see "The Fantasticks" at the tiny Sullivan Street Playhouse where it has been playing for the past 36 years. "Seeing 'The Fantasticks' was a special treat," said senior Quentin Stockwell who plays the character El Gallo. "We sat in the third row, flat up against the back wall, and were so close we could see what color eyes each person on stage had."

The two-hour show begins at 7:30 p.m. in Bingham Auditorium and is free and open to the public.

RICHARDSON LAKES BOOK

The forthcoming book by Herbert P. Shirrefs, "The Richardson Lakes: Jewels in the Rangeley Chain" is currently available at pre-publication prices.

Pre-publication price for the hardcover edition is $29.95 plus tax if applicable and $3 for the first book and $1 for each additional copy. The price for the quality paperback is $22.95 plus applicable tax and shipping. The price after publication will be $39.95 for the hardcover edition and $29.95 for the softcover.

A labor of love for nearly 30 years, Herbert Shirrefs's long-awaited book traces the colorful history of a large portion of the Rangeley Lakes region in northwestern Maine. In several hundred pages of text and with numerous photos, engravings, and maps, Shirrefs tells the unique story of the Richardsons -- from their geological formation and occupation by Paleo-Indians, to their present status as a center for outdoor recreation and conservation.

There are also stories of fishing, hunting and camping and of such places as Angler's Retreat and the Upper Dam House.

The book fills a gap in the literature concerning Maine's 19th and early 20th century sporting and tourist industry -- enterprises that thrived during an era when railroads, stage lines, and steamboats brought well-to-do "sports" to rustic but fashionable retreats on many of the State's largest lakes.

This book brings to light long-forgotten writings by people, who, more than a century ago, explored, worked and played in what was once known as the "Androscoggin Lakes" region of Maine. This work also includes valuable information and rare photographs never before published, thanks in part to the generosity of many people who have had lifelong connections with one of the most scenic areas in northern New England.

Edited by Randall H. Bennett, Curator of Collections of the Bethel Historical Society, the book will be approximately six by nine inches, 450 pages, 200 illustrations with a bibliography, index, and large map folded in a pocket inside the back cover.

Orders may by sent to the Bethel Historical Society, P.O. Box 12, Bethel, Maine 04217-0012. For further information, please call the Society office at 207-824-2908 or 1-800-824-2910. The shipment of books is expected to take place in the fall of 1995.

MUSIC MINISTRY CONCERT

Gospel singer and recording artist Laurie Meserve will appear in concert at North Waterford Congregational Church on Sunday, May 21 at 7 p.m.

The Jubilee Music Ministry, with Laurie Meserve as soloist and her husband, Linwood, as sound technician, is from southern Maine. Meserve has traveled in a music ministry for most of 30 years, most of that time singing with gospel trios and duets.

The church is located across from Tut's Store in North Waterford. For more information, call 583-2598. The public is welcome.

RUMFORD DANCE

Dancers from the Ragamala Music and Dance Theater will perform June 2 in a benefit for the Abused Women's Advocacy Project (AWAP).

The show will take place at 8 p.m. in Muskie Auditorium at Mountain Valley High School in Rumford.

Ranee Ramaswamy, dancer and choreographer, and David Whetstone, sitarist and composer, will perform with the group.

Tickets will be available at the door, at $4 for adults and $2 for students. For advance tickets and more information call 369-0750.

MEMORIAL ART SHOW

The 16th annual Faye Taylor Memorial Art Show will be held on Saturday, May 27 in the meeting room of the Dr. Moses Mason House from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

All interested SAD44 elementary students (grades one through six) have been invited to enter the show with a finished painting in any medium no larger than 12 by 18 inches. All entries this year should deal with old barns in some way. All entries are requested to be at the Dr. Moses Mason House by 3 p.m., Friday, May 26, in order to be considered for the judging. Ribbons, certificates and cash prizes will be awarded to the top three students in each of three classes.

Faye Taylor (1908-1972) was a founder and treasurer of the Bethel Historical Society. An artist, she was particularly interested in art for young people.

The annual Faye Taylor Memorial Art Show is one of several programs designed by the Historical Society to stimulate student interest in the past. The society provides educational programs for public schools, advises and supervises college and graduate students, recognizes outstanding achievement by high school students in writing history through its Dr. Moses Mason Award, and sponsors local history courses and an Elderhostel program.

News from the

The Bethel Library

There were several donations to the Bethel Library's permanent collection this week. Dan and Julie Hart gave a birthday book in honor of daughter Lindsay's 7th birthday: "Lucy's Summer" by Donald Hall. Lorie Hoeh donated Avi's "Romeo and Juliet Together (and Alive!) At Last" in honor of her mother, Ann Bencina, for Mother's Day. Linda Gamble gave "Moo" by Jane Smiley. Sally Taylor gave "Over the Horizon: Vignettes of a Voyager" by Joan S. Kilborn, for the Bethel Bicentennial Book Shelf, an upcoming display (during the month of August) planned by the Education Subcommittee of the Bethel Bicentennial, Peg Wheeler, Cherie Douglass and Peggy Wight all donated books from their own collections.

The Bethel Library has a "Wish List" Book Club, for those who would like to help build the collection by purchasing one of the books on the following list. Donors would get the 45 percent library discount off the book price, their gift would be tax deductible and they would be the first to read the book. The following is the current "Wish List:" "In Retrospect: The Tragedy and Lessons of Vietnam" by Robert S. McNamara; "In Search of Stones" by M. Scott Peck; "The Late Child" by Larry McMurtry; "The Distinguished Guest" by Sue Miller; "Thin Air" by Robert B. Parker; "The Carousel" by Belva Plain; "Phenomenal Woman" by Maya Angelou; "The Stone Diaries" by Carol Shields; "Rule of the Bone" by Russell Banks; "The Odd Job" by Charlotte McLeod. Ask at the library circulation desk for more information.

The perennial plant sale, June 3, at the fire station, is almost here. This year there will be more consistent labeling to give plant purchasers as much information as possible. Information and labels are available at the circulation desk or from Betsy Raymond, Merton Brown, or Nancy Hansen if you would like to donate perennials from your garden. Donated cookbooks will also be on sale.

Librarian

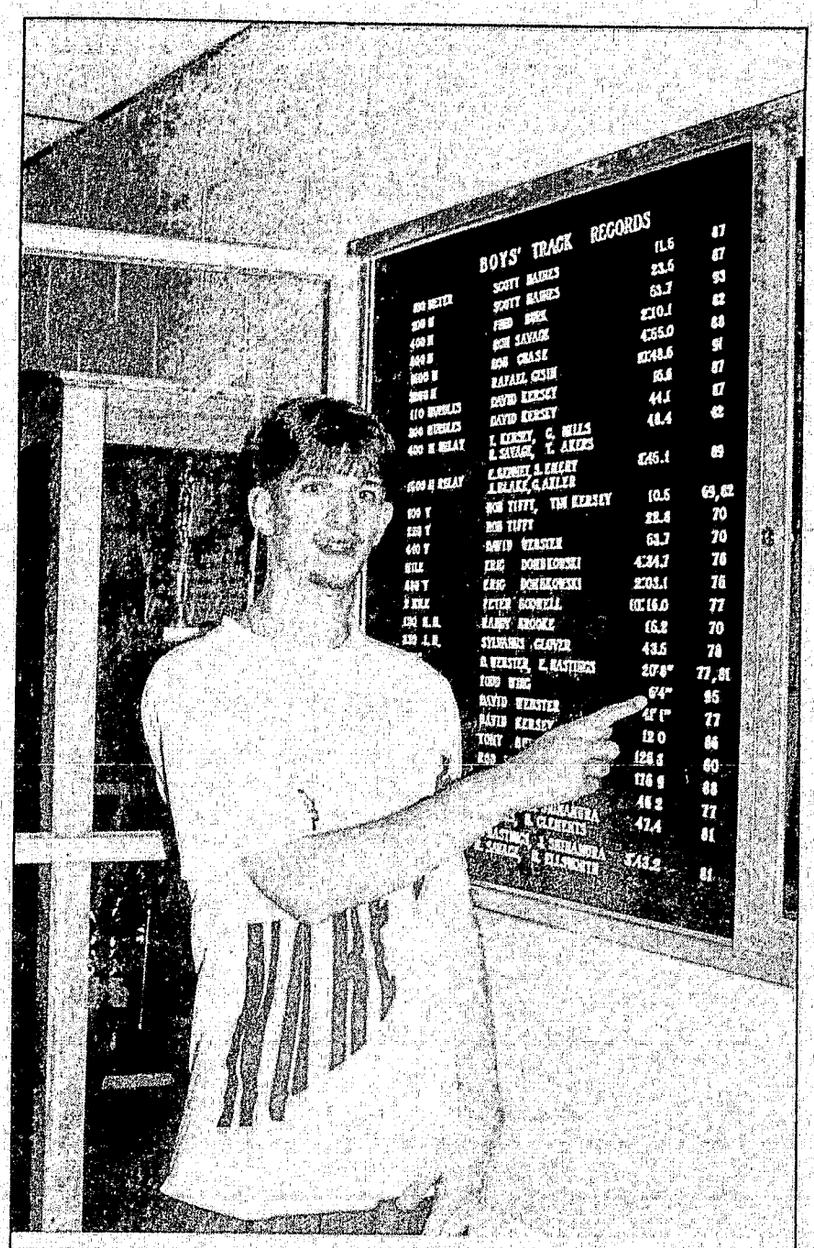
NOTES FROM

Adult Education

Adult Education in the Telstar Region will offer two programs starting during the next few weeks, including an Herb Walk with Corinne Martin and a course in Motorcycle Safety in cooperation with Atlantic Driving School. To enroll in either class, call the office at 824-2780.

The Herb Walk will be held on Monday, May 22, from 6 to 8 p.m. and will start at Telstar High School. Corinne Martin will lead the group in a search for wild medicinal plants and other secrets of the woods. The fee is $5.

Motorcycle Safety is an eight-hour course to be held on May 31 and June 1 from 6 to 10 p.m. at Telstar High School. Steve Galvin is the instructor for Atlantic Driving School. This class is required for anyone seeking a motorcycle permit. The fee is $60.



TODD TAKES WING--Telstar senior Todd Wing broke the school's high jump record by three inches in a track meet last week. He jumped six feet, four inches to surpass the previous record of six-one, set by Scott Haines in 1987. Coach Russ Tornrose said Wing was well above the bar on the jump, and has the potential to break his own record before the season is over. Here, Todd changes the record board in a ceremony at the school. (Photo by Alison Aloisio)

Jackson-Silver Auxiliary

The 75th anniversary of the American Legion Auxiliary was recently celebrated with a tea on April 30 at the Locke Mills Legion Hall.

When the American Legion held its first National Convention in 1919 they authorized the formation of an Auxiliary. By the time of their National Convention in 1920 there were already many units organized and the Auxiliary was able to hold a National Convention the next year.

Jackson-Silver Unit's charter member, Fannie Cummings, has now been a member for 75 years. There are a few other 75 year members in Oxford County, but they were unable to attend the tea. Mrs. Cummings brought numerous items of memorabilia which she had collected over the years and had them on display for all to see and told those assembled about the early days. Heather Beasley, Department Historian was on hand to videotape her and we hope to get a copy to be shown on the local cable Channel 4.

In 1924 Mrs. Cummings moved to California and transferred her membership to Watts Unit #320, but returned to Maine and Jackson-Silver Unit in 1932 and took up where she left off. By the war year of 1942-43 she had become the state president of the organization. She had many other jobs during that time: she served on the War Bond Savings Committee, was a WAVE recruiter and First Aid instructor, learned to drive in a convoy for the Red Cross Motor Corps and served as an air craft spotter near West Paris. In 1943 she was given the privilege of sponsoring a Liberty Ship at the South Portland shipyard. These are but a few of the highlights of her term as department president and there are many more over the years as she has served as Publicity Chairman, chaplain and worn many other hats. She still helps with installations and wherever else she can.

Present at the April 30 tea were the National Public Relations Chairman, Donna Light, who is also a past department president and past national vice president; Jeri Greenwell, also a past department president and national vice president and now the Department Finance Chairman; M. Jo Miete, past department president and now Department Leadership Chairman; Shirley Williams, Girls State Director and Honorary Past Department President; Second District President, Glenda Gordon; Past Department Commander, John E. Howe.

AUDUBON MEETING

The North Country Chapter of the Audubon Society of New Hampshire will offer a free program about the Alpine Gardens of Mt. Washington at their monthly meeting on May 19, 7 p.m. The public is invited to attend. For more information, call 603-752-1924.

The New Locke Mountain Townhouses

Trail Elevation

Slopeside ❖ Quality Construction ❖ Panoramic Views

Ski to your door in the afternoon. Stoke up the fire -- and relax. Watch the sun set over the spectacular Mahoosuc mountain range... from the livingroom of your new Locke Mountain Townhouse.

It's more than a slopeside condo--it's a true four-season second home. Superior construction. The utmost in convenience and privacy. You'll enjoy the fully-equipped kitchen... the cathedral ceilings... the large master bedroom... the plush wall-to-wall carpeting... the tasteful and comfortable design.

Select from two spacious floor plans. In the 1800 square-foot configuration, you'll enjoy three large bedrooms, a loft, a daylight basement and the luxury of three full baths.

In the 1660 square-foot configuration, you'll relax with three full bedrooms and two and a half baths.

Each winter, you'll step out the door and into your skis. In the summer, you can hike, mountain bike, fish, golf and explore the cool green mountains. Locke Mountain Townhouses offer you four-season recreational opportunities. All this comfort, all this convenience is available now... at remarkably attractive prices. Compare--, you won't find better value in slopeside second homes ANY WHERE in snow country.

Call Sunday River Realty today at (207) 824-3000 ext. 333, and learn how you can enjoy the best of Maine's Western Mountains... four wonderful seasons a year.

Card of Thanks

The family of Maxine Clough Brown wish to extend their heartfelt thanks to relatives, friends, and neighbors for all the many acts of kindness shown during their recent sorrow.

The many sympathy cards, prayers, flowers, food, phone calls, visits were appreciated so much and we will never forget your thoughtfulness.

A special thanks to the nursing staff at The Market Square Health Center in South Paris for the loving care and comfort given her, to the Reverends' Brendon and Jean Bass of the West Parish Congregational Church for celebrating with all "Her Life", for the music of Mary Valentine, and to the Women's Fellowship for serving refreshments at the church for the family and friends following the funeral. A special thanks to Chris Weston and staff of Weston-Chandler Funeral Home and especially to Stan Howe, director of the Bethel Historical Society for his memorable tribute "Remembering Maxine Brown".

God Bless You All

NORINE A. KUJALA

Norine A. Kujala, 99, of West Paris, died Thursday at Market Square Health Care Center where she had been a patient for nearly two years.

She was born in Post Mills, Vt., July 20, 1895, daughter of Albert E. and Carrie (Munsey) Rogers. She attended New Hampshire public schools and was a foster mother for over 40 children over the years. For many years, she ran the Town Farm House in Greenwood and the Maple Hotel in West Paris. She was baptised in the Baptist Church of Pittsfield, N.H., and was a past member of the West Paris Universalist Church, Rebekahs and grange.

She had lived in West Paris since 1938, coming from Greenwood, and married John H. Ring, who died in 1964. She then married Waino Kujala, who died in 1988.

Survivors include a son and daughter-in-law, Durwood and Maude Ring of Concord, N.H.; four daughters, Valerlee Andrews of Norway, Beryl Waisanen of West Paris, Sheryl and son-in-law Henry Waisanen of West Paris, and Mrs. Clifton (Alice) Johnson of Oakland; a sister, Arlene Farr of West Paris; a stepson, Waino Kujala of Templeton, Mass. and Port Charlotte, Fla.; several grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

She was predeceased by a son, John M. Ring, who died in 1978; two sisters, Gladys Millett and Mildred Brooks, and three brothers, Artland, George and Raymond.

Funeral services were held Monday, May 15, at the Andrews Funeral Home, South Woodstock, with Rev. Michael Ring officiating. Interment will be at the Wayside Cemetery, West Paris. In lieu of flowers, please make memorial contributions to Androscoggin Home Health, P.O. Box 819, Lewiston, ME 04243-0819.

Card of Thanks

The family of Ronald B. Ross wish to thank you for all the cards, calls and kind words during his illness this past year. Special thanks to Dr. Kamaki, the nurses at Stephens Memorial Hospital, Androscoggin Home Health and the people who sent memorial gifts to the Hospital in his memory.
